

STUEY FAYMOUS

EVENT DJ & MC

Stuart Fayman has been behind the decks since 2010 — fifteen years, hundreds of weddings, and a calendar that has run from the Australian Open and Melbourne Cup Carnival to Burning Man and New York Fashion Week. Of all of it, weddings remain the work he chooses.

He performs as both DJ and MC. One voice carries the room from the first guest arrival through to the last song — no handover, no stranger on the microphone, no moment where the evening quietly loses its thread.

Premium weddings and private events

He arrives entirely self-sufficient. Audio, lighting and microphones are supplied and operated as standard: no hire company to brief, no separate AV contract, no seam between suppliers for something to fall through.

Every playlist is built with the couple in the months before the day. What no plan accounts for is the room itself — and that is where fifteen years of reading dance floors does its work.

04 WHAT A BOOKING INCLUDES

DJ and MC, the full day

Ceremony, canapés, reception and dance floor — announcements, timing and music held by one person, start to finish.

Collaborative playlist curation

Built with the couple over the months before the day. Must-plays, never-plays, and the moments that need to land exactly right.

Complete production

Professional audio, lighting and microphones supplied and operated. No third-party hire, no separate AV brief, no surprises on the invoice.

Live musicians on request

A band built around the booth, drawing on Melbourne's finest saxophonists and players — without breaking the flow of a DJ set.
